Participants, Parents, and Choirmasters:
Please read the following policy and sign below.

The RSCM Training Courses respect the judgment of all participants. Our policies have been established to help ensure safe and enjoyable training courses. The safety of all and the success of the program depend upon the actions of each participant.

Therefore, any RSCM participant whose attitude, conduct, or behavior is detrimental to the course or to the reputation of the program, who endangers herself or other members of the group in any way, or who uses alcohol, tobacco, or any non-medical drug during the course, will be dismissed from the course at the discretion of the music director, manager, chaplain, or head proctor. Under such circumstances, all additional transportation, communication, accommodation, or other expenses incurred by the dismissed participant shall be the full responsibility of the participant's parent(s) or legal guardian(s). There is no refund whatsoever for participants who are expelled, regardless of the point at which they are dismissed.

Because this course offers an intensive experience in group living, we recommend that participants display not only a strong interest in singing, but an ability to work and play responsibly as well as to respect their peers and those in authority. We ask that the choirmaster not recommend any chorister whose behavior may potentially be disruptive to this kind of intensive social experience.

I have read and understand the above policy.
